DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 16 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 16 is totally unclear. What is a front, angled region? Where is 'front'? It is also an incomplete sentence. The conduit comprises what? What extends in radial direction? What part of conduit surrounds motor? What does 'and extends in a radial direction' refer to?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 9, 11-21 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Izumisawa-5,919,085.

Izumisawa discloses a hand-held power sander comprising a housing (1,35), motor for driving a shaft (25), a suction conduit (42) within housing and having a chamber portion surrounding and adjoining spindle (25) and acting as an intake at a face of the housing, the suction conduit extending along underside of motor (11,12,13), past a bearing flange (38), to an outlet stub (end), a tool receptacle (28) having a suction opening (30) directly coupled to conduit (42) via a region that is open toward outside of tool (47) to form an annular gap between housing and tool receptacle.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4,5,22 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Izumisawa, alone.

Izumisawa discloses a hand-held power sander as detailed above, but does not disclose inner radial region of conduit to be less than 1 cm nor the gap size. However, both of these limitations, the inner radial distance and the gap size, would have been obvious design expedients and within the level of one of ordinary skill in the art.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant states that Izumisawa teaches an upper and lower housing and that lower housing 35 does not surround motor. However, Examiner interprets parts 1 and

Art Unit: 3723

35 to constitute housing and Applicants sander is similar in that there is an upper and lower housing divided by the upper 'wall' of conduit 18 and spindle passes through the upper wall similar to Izumisawa. Izumisawa's 'skirt' is part of the conduit and the opening is radial and toward outside of tool and reads on the claimed limitations.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
